Dedication

Dear Miss Goertz,

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and service you have given us in our years at Briercrest. Faithfully you have continued to serve the Lord as our cook. We may not be entirely aware of all the time you have devoted to our nutritional needs, but we sincerely owe you a debt of gratitude. We have appreciated your enthusiasm and cheerful personality in the kitchen and on the campus. Your dedication to God will long be remembered by each one of us. We consider it a privilege to honor you by dedicating this, our yearbook, to you.

His Message

What we believe is extremely important. Our doctrine determines our destiny; our creed determines our conduct; our faith determines our fruit. We shall therefore, outline in regard to the inspiration of the Bible, the doctrinal convictions which have given and shall continue to give direction to our school.

We believe the Word of God, the Bible. Our Biblical concept of the written revelation has been directly derived from the two tables of law that God wrote with His own fingers. When we claim that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, we mean that word - for - word it is God given. And He who is its author is also its chief witness and leading exponent.

Our Lord, Himself, endorsed the Scriptures and thereby gave us the concept of Biblical authority. He used the Scriptures as the clinching force binding His utterances to the revealed truth of God. Saith He, "the Scripture cannot be broken . . . the Scriptures must be fulfilled . . . till Heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled . . . Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away".

The apostles too affirmed their faith in the inspiration of the Word of God. Peter wrote, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost". Paul called Timothy's attention to the sacred writings saying, "All Scripture is given by inspiration, and is profitable . . ."

The early church confessed its faith in the Holy Scriptures as comprised of the Old Testament and New Testament canons, and thereby handed down to us the complete rule of faith for this life in preparation for the life to come.

John Wesley aptly expresses our appreciation of the Bible in the following quote. "I want to know one thing, the way to heaven, . . . God, Himself, has condescended to teach the way . . . He hath written it down in a book. O give me that book: at any price give me the book of God".

Chairman's Message

God called the Briercrest Bible Institute into being thirty years ago and since that time has, through His faithful stewards met the needs in a most amazing fashion. We believe that the new administration and classroom building is His latest answer to our needs in this regard. As these modern facilities are brought into us may we be found more faithful and zealous than ever before in performing the task committed to us.

Memoriam

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Psalm 116:15

Naomi Grace (Dyck) Dirksen was born March 10th, 1933. After spending her early years with her family, the Jacob Dycks of Herbert, she enrolled as a Bible School student in the fall of 1952. Many will remember her as a member of the 'Dyck Trio' and later singing in a radio trio.

On July 2nd of 1955 Naomi married Henry Dirksen. They moved to Vancouver where Henry attended Teacher's College and from there a year later to Prince George where Henry began his teaching career. While living in Prince George, the Lord blessed their home with two children - Dale in December of 1956 and Dorrit in May of 1958.

The Briercrest Bible Institute welcomed the Dirksen's to the High School staff in September of 1958. Three years later, in November of 1961, they welcomed the third member of their family, Garth Roger.

"Given to hospitality" was a reality in Naomi's life. All who entered her home, staff and student alike, sensed the warmth of her welcome.

This past summer, Henry, Naomi, and their three children were privileged to serve the Lord at the Ness Lake Bible camp near Prince George. Cooking for the many hungry campers made the summer a happy one for Naomi. Many were the blessings of the Lord during those busy weeks of camp.

On August the 30th, while returning home to Caronport, the Lord reached down and took Naomi to her heavenly home, there to sing in the celestial choir. The last song which Naomi and Henry sang together at camp was one of their favorites:

"In Heaven there are many things, I'm longing so to see,
It's beauties surely will my soul enthrall.
But when I'm ushered to the realms of blest eternity,
I want to see my Saviour first of all."

Heaven has now become more real and dear to all who knew and loved Naomi.

President's Message

"For we are His workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Ephesians 2:10. I thank God that this is our confidence as Christian young people and that God's Word gives us the assurance that we individually have a part in God's great plan.

In seeking to conform to God's blueprint for our lives and seeking to become approved workmen we have taken time to delve into His Word. On meeting the challenge of God's Word, spiritual battles have been waged and victories won. The practical education received in the daily tasks and associations of school life has been essential in our growth toward Christian maturity. Experience in practical Christian work, lessons of self-discipline in studies, and the often hard-learned lessons of obedience to regulations will prove invaluable. The fellowship of students and teachers of kindred convictions and ideals has been a blessing.

Our days at Briercrest will not be soon forgotten, and will stand us in good stead as we continue to seek God's directive will. It is our desire that we may be "...sincere and without offense till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God" Philippians 1:10b, 11.

ALASKA — EUROPE

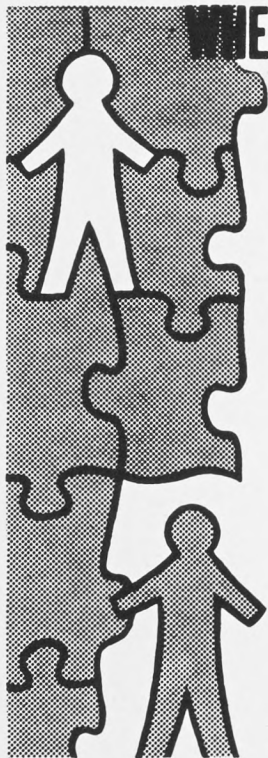

Bible-trained, dedicated married couples or single persons are needed for general missionary work, evangelism and youth ministry in Alaska where the English language is used. Musical ability would be a great help. More workers are needed for the missionary work in Europe among Slavic, German, French and others.

SOUTH AMERICA — trained Russian-speaking missionaries, already in South America, need support. You can have a personal representative on the field. For information write to:

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN?

God has a special place for you in His plan for world evangelism. To find it means a life of joyous enrichment. To miss it can mean an unsatisfied life, despite outward success.

Where do you fit in? Do you know?

If not, let us help you. May we send you our helpful booklet WHO SHOULD GO? and literature covering all phases of missionary work? We will be happy to counsel you concerning the possibility of service on our fields; and pray with you for guidance. We invite you to write us.
